Allen River Ranch

830.94 +/- ACRES

COUNTY ROAD 401, ANDERSON, GRIMES COUNTY, TEXAS

$5,646,662

The Allen River Ranch is a large live water ranch located in Grimes County, Texas. Located between Houston and Bryan/College Station just north of Navasota. This ranch is secluded at the end of a county-maintained road and boasts over 2 miles of Navasota River frontage, comprising the entire western boundary of the ranch.

With the native deer, ducks, fish and other birds, many recreation opportunities await the next owner of this ranch.

The ranch also includes expansive bottom and upland pastures for ranching and grazing cattle. Scattered woodland and brush provide cattle protection in winter months and shade in summers. Great hardwoods tower over much of the bottom land.

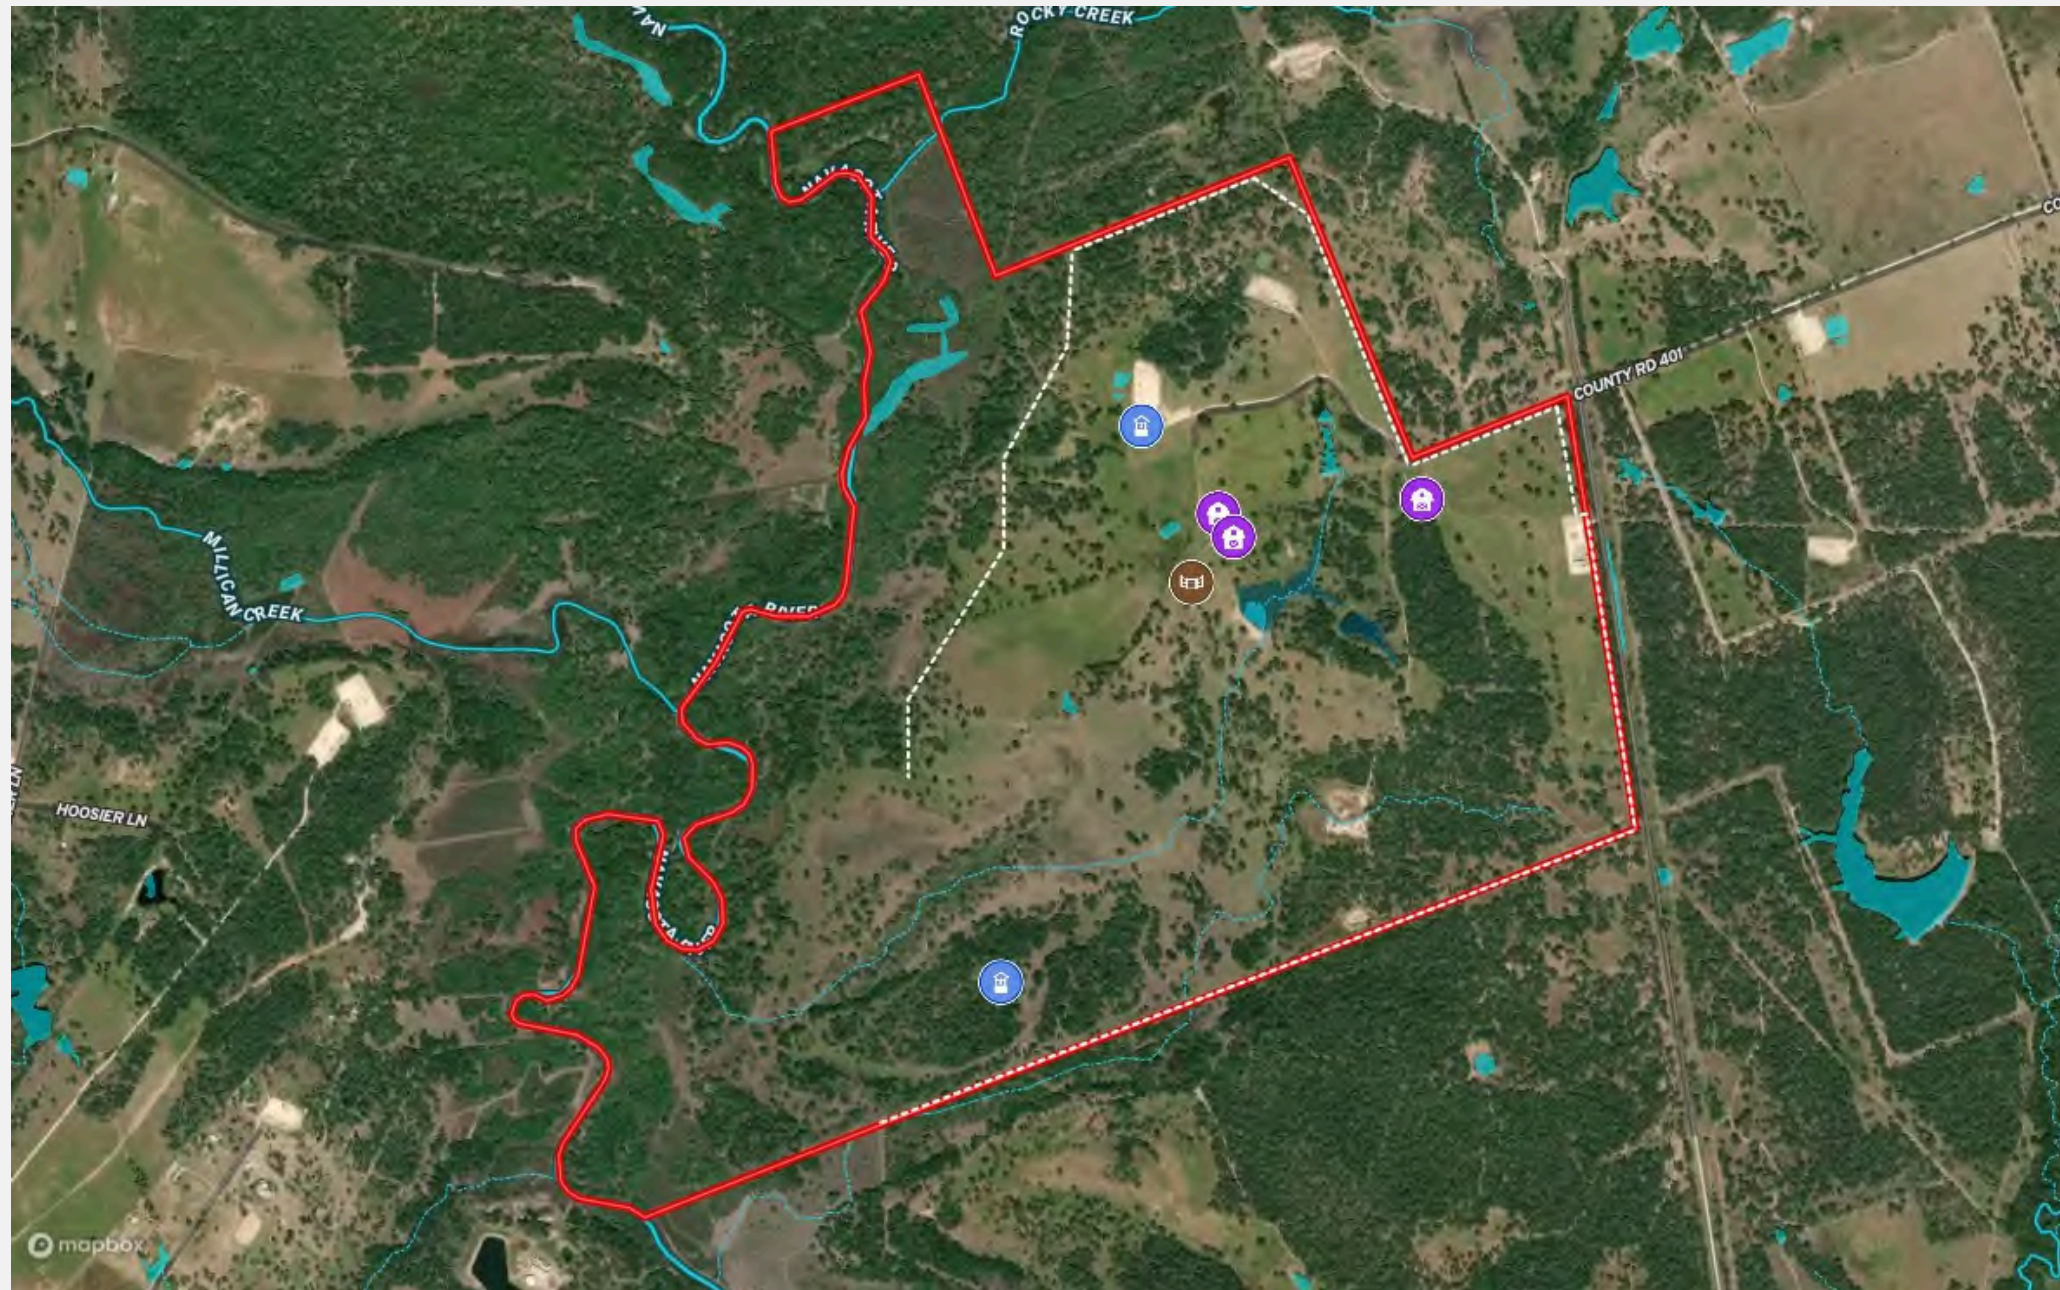

Multiple nice homesites exist on the ranch. With elevations ranging from 175 feet up to 230 feet, the terrain provides many beautiful vistas of the surrounding area. The College Station Tower Point water tower can be seen to the North West, less than 10 miles in distance as a crow flies.

Aerial Overview

*boundary lines are approx.

Improvements

The ranch has perimeter fencing (except for Navasota River frontage). Fencing consists of primarily of barbed wire and net wire game fencing. In addition, cross fencing exists throughout the ranch.

There are several outbuildings. The most significant of these include two metal framed equipment sheds with dirt floors and a shop/barn. Several ponds dot the landscape across the ranch.

Leases and Easements

The ranch is a typical Texas ranch with oil and gas leases and two producing wells on site. A gas compressor station is located on the eastern boundary of the ranch as well as multiple pipelines that cross the ranch. There are electric line easements that are used to provide electrical service to headquarters area, old mobile home, wells and compressor station.

Terrain

Newly surveyed - 830 +/- acres of which approximately 485 acres is bottomland. The upland is on the eastern portion of the property and is a combination of gently rolling open pasture and woodland. The eastern portion of the ranch has primarily sandy loam soils and turfed in native and improved pasture. The upland pastures are suitable for cattle grazing or wildlife habitat.

The bottomland is the western portion of the property and consists of flat open native pasture, woodland, and glades. The bottomland pastures are suitable for seasonal cattle grazing or year-round wildlife habitat. There are several slough areas in the bottomlands (suitable for waterfowl hunting).

Zoning, Restrictions, & Flood Plain

There is no zoning as the ranch is located in an unincorporated part of the county. There are no known restrictions on the ranch. The western portion of the property (485 ± acres) is situated in a Special Flood Hazard Area.

Utilities

Mid-South Electric Coop provides electrical service to the ranch. A single-phase electric line is in place and serves an old hunter's camp and the headquarters area. Water is provided by two known private water wells; we understand only one is functioning. No well reports are available. Two private septic systems exist.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

2-10-2025

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
